

WOW
VIAJES

CHALTEN CAMP - PRIVATE TOURS PROGRAM BY WOW VIAJES

This program was exclusively designed for Chalten Camp guests & clients

INCLUDED SERVICES

- Private transfer in & out from El Calafate Airport or hotel in town to El Chalten. (with diver only)
- 01 Full Day to Lago del Desierto & Glacier Huemul
- 01 Full Day Excursion to Laguna Torre - Parque Nacional
- 01 Full Day to Laguna de los Tres - Parque Nacional
- Fee entrances to National Park & Private Reserves
- Private transportation from and to Chalten Camp to the heads' trails

NOT INCLUDED SERVICES

- Meals or lunch boxes (please check your meals plan with Chalten Camp)
- Non detailed excursions
- Additional excursions.
- Travel Insurance.
- Tips

If your stay is for 3 nights, we recommend 2 days of Full Day activities. please let us know your plans to do a tailor made quotation based on dates & number of guests
Please check suggested itinerary below

DETAILED ITINERARY

Day 1 ARRIVAL TO EL CALAFATE AND CONTINUE TO EL CHALTEN

Our meeting point will be at Calafate Airport or your hotel in Calafate town, from where you will depart to El Chalten, on a private transfer.

This fantastic transfer will be provided on a very comfortable 4 x 4 vehicle, it is available for any flight times, and will make stops at the best viewpoints along the road.

Embark on an unforgettable journey along Route 40 from Calafate to El Chalten. Experience the breathtaking beauty of Lake Argentino, encounter majestic Guanacos, and marvel at the awe-inspiring views of Fitz Roy. Make a stop at Parador La Leona, a historic resting place with tales dating back to the early 20th century. Learn about the fascinating history that unfolds in this iconic location, adding a rich layer to your Patagonian adventure.

Arrival at Chalten Camp and check in.

Afternoon briefing with head guide to talk about your adventure for the next few days, check that you have the necessary equipment and confirm what is the best itinerary for you depending on the weather and your fitness conditions.

Day 2 LAGO DEL DESIERTO & GLACIAR HUEMUL

For this second day you have the possibility of choosing between an excursion to Lago del Desierto & Glacier & Laguna Huemul a to Laguna Torre.

Lago del Desierto & Glaciar Huemul

Starting around 8.30 am from Chalten Camp, you have approximately 1.3 hr driving to Lago del Desierto. Once there, you start a 1.3 hr hike to Laguna & Glaciar Huemul. Then, you walk by the shores of the lake to have lunch on the beach. After lunch you return to Chalten Camp, arriving around 3 - 4 PM

Lago del Desierto is like a big turquoise gem tucked amidst the Andean peaks. Its tranquil waters reflect the rugged beauty of the surroundings, offering a peaceful escape for nature lovers. Nearby, Glaciar Huemul adds a touch of drama with its massive ice formations and crevasses, showcasing the powerful forces of nature in Patagonia.

Together, they create a stunning landscape that's both captivating and unforgettable, drawing adventurers from around the world to experience the wild beauty of this remote region.

What's included

Trekking certified guide (English- Spanish speaking)
 Transportation to and from:
 Lago del Desierto - Chalten Camp - Tips

What's not included

Box Lunch
 Technical Gear or clothes

Option 2: Laguna Torre Hike

The trekking trail starts in town, with a slight slope in the first minutes, you will walk, always following the course of the Fitz Roy River. Beautiful views of Cerro Torre will be revealed during the hike. Then, you will arrive at the first viewpoint - ideal for making the first rest stop (1:30 a.m. from El Chaltén), and to contemplate Cerro Torre, its glaciers, and the Cordón de las Adelas. After this, you will continue you hiking for 1 hour through a beautiful valley, with few undulations, until you reach the De Agostini Base Camp, where the elite of mountaineers from all over the world will surely be, waiting to climb the Torre. You will continue a few more minutes of trekking, in order to reach Laguna Torre, with a magnificent view of the homonymous Hill, flanked by the Egger, Standhardt, Bífida and Cordón de las Adelas needles, with its impressive glaciers spilling into the Lagoon.

After having lunch there, you will return along the same path; to arrive in El Chalten.

Duration: 6- 7 hours / Km: 18 approx. / Elevation mtrs: 300 (250 Mts only the first 3 km)
 Physical Demand: Moderate

What's included

Full day Trekking
 Trekking certified guide (English- Spanish speaking)
 Transportation to and from the head of the trail - Chalten Camp

What's not included

Lunch box
 Technical gear cloth

Day 3 EL CHALTEN - LAGUNA DE LOS TRES

This day you can enjoy the most iconic trekking of Chalten, your guide will also advise which one is better depending on the weather conditions.

Private trekking with your English guide. This is “the hike” in the National Park where you have the closest approach to the Fitz Roy Massif. You leave from Chalten Camp -by vehicle- towards the head of the trail which is located 20 km away, at Rio Electrico Bridge.

At this point you begin the hike, you will enter a forest of lengas and ñires, continuing along this path, after approximately 1:15 hours you will reach the first viewpoint with an excellent view of the Piedras Blancas Glacier.

After this short stop to take some nice photographs you will arrive at Poincenot camp: where there are usually many tents of worldwide hikers. Then, very close, you will cross the river bridge, to reach the “Río Blanco” Base Camp, which is used by climbers.

From this point, the Guide will take you to the Laguna de los Tres Viewpoint, a 500 meter slope that will take 1 hour on a rocky path. Here you can see the spectacular view of the Fitz Roy Massif, the lagoon and its glaciers. A few meters away, you can also get an excellent view of Laguna Sucia.

You will have time to enjoy your picnic (provided by the hotel), with stunning views.

Later on you will return along the path that passes through Laguna Capri Viewpoint; latter arriving at El Chalten.

Departure Time: 08.00 - 09.00 am / Return Time : 5.00 – 7.00 pm

Duration: 9 hours / Km: 23 approx. / Elevation meters: 800 /Physical Demand: Moderate to High

What's included

Full day Trekking
Trekking certified guide
(English- Spanish speaking)
Transportation to and from the head of the trail - Chalten Camp

What's not included

Lunch box
Technical gear cloth

Day 4 EL CHALTEN / EL CALAFATE

Travel from El Chalten to El Calafate Airport or downtown along the scenic route 40.
End of our services

PAYMENT, RATES & CANCELLATIONS

Booked services non refundable and are not canceled by weather conditions, except dangerous ones. It's the local policy of the guides association.

Payment: Fully prepaid services by credit Card. Special discounts on Debit Visa Card. (please ask)

Double rate on guides services for 25 dec & 01 JAN . It will be considered and included in the quotation if these days are requested.